Title of practice: Trade fair / exhibition of local small scale enterprises in the institute

Objective of practice: The trade fair was organized with objectives:-

- To make students exposed to and informed about the latest products and services.
- Students shall get exposure to corporate culture, thereby learning professional ethics.
- To improve the financial literacy of students
- To inspire and encourage the students for entrepreneurship
- To strengthen the bonds with local business organizations for mutual benefit.
- As an institute's social responsibility, it provided a platform for interaction between local businesses and the local community.

The context :

- Institute-industry interaction, especially in engineering institutes, it is found that the most of the institutes are keen to interact with well established large-scale enterprises only.
- Most of the institutes are reluctant to interact with small enterprises located in rural areas.
- Institute interaction with rural small entrepreneurs can play a significant role in empowering and supporting local communities.
- Institutes can help rural small entrepreneurs by connecting them with market opportunities and facilitating access to resources.
- This can involve organizing trade fairs, exhibitions, or networking events where entrepreneurs can showcase their products and services to potential buyers, investors, or partners.
- Institutions collaborations with local and small rural enterprises can inspire the students for self-employment.

The Practice:

Institute has decided to organize a trade fair for local entrepreneurs/businesses every year with the objective stated above. The first trade fair was organized on 9 th Feb. 2023. It comprises the showcase. exhibition, and demonstration of various latest products and services provided by local entrepreneurs, covering banking, financial products, consumable durables, electronic gadgets, computers, products related to non-conventional energy, vehicles of the latest features, E -vehicles, and many more.

The event received a huge response of around 2000 visitors, which includes, students, staff, parents, and the local community.

Also, a Panel discussion on e - vehicles, hybrid vehicles, green hydrogen vehicles, its pros, and cons was held during the trade expo.

Evidence of Success

The event got a huge response around 2000 number of peoples comprising students of nearby institutes, schools, staff, parents, and the local community visited the fair.

It enhanced of vibrancy in the local market as well as in institutes after long sluggish years of covid pandemic.

It created spirit to organize awareness programs and entrepreneurship camps in rural areas to inspire and educate individuals about the possibilities of entrepreneurship.

Problems Encountered and Resources Required:

Initial reluctance of local enterprises to participate, as the program was one of its kind and was being organized for the first time by any institute for local entrepreneurs.

Resource required: Expenditure of around Rs one lakh for arranging the event.

Cyborg CLUB

....a club for Robotics & Automation

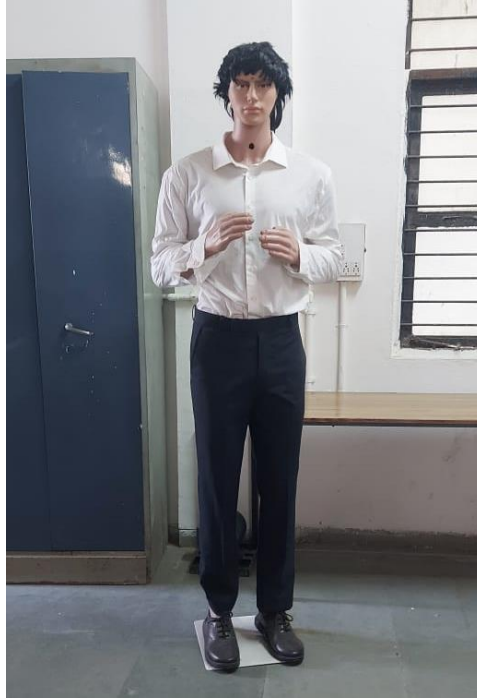

Students interested in starting or learning about a club focused on robotics and automation, which we might colloquially call a "Cyborg" club. Setting up and maintaining a robotics club can be an exciting venture, benefiting both its members of club and the community.

Start with basic robotics kits like Arduino or Raspberry Pi for beginners. As the club progresses, invest in equipment and software. Dedicate session was conducted on 15th March 2023 for building and testing robots.

Serving Robot prepared by Students of Cyborg Club

Face recognition using Raspberry Pi

Robotics and automation is a rapidly evolving field. Subscribe to magazines, online forums, or attend webinars to keep the club updated. Engage with online robotics communities or platforms for resources and opportunities.

The main goal is to foster a love for robotics, automation, and learning. Ensure that the environment remains positive, inclusive, and encourages club members to experiment, innovate, and most importantly, have fun!
