Attendance of NSS volunteers during special camp at village Ranantri during 17/12/2019 to 24/12/2019

2018-19

1 Yoga Day 21 June 2018

On June 21, 2018, the NSS Unit of Anuradha Engineering College in Chikhli organized a Yoga Day event. Professor Dahake from Adarsh School Chikhli graciously served as the instructor for the session. Under his guidance, participants engaged in various yoga practices aimed at promoting physical and mental well-being. The event provided an opportunity for students and faculty to learn and experience the benefits of yoga firsthand. It underscored the college's commitment to holistic education and fostering a healthy lifestyle among its community members.

7. Educating villagers for cleanliness 17/12/2018

During a special NSS camp, volunteers collaborated with villagers to emphasize the importance of cleanliness. Through interactive sessions and discussions, they educated the community about the significance of maintaining cleanliness for personal health, environmental preservation, and community well-being. As part of the initiative, NSS volunteers led by example by actively participating in cleanliness drives and activities within the village. Additionally, they organized a collective pledge-taking ceremony, where both volunteers and villagers vowed to uphold cleanliness standards and work together towards a cleaner and healthier environment. This collective effort not only promoted awareness but also fostered a sense of responsibility and ownership for maintaining cleanliness within the community.
